Why do I need to join?

Membership to Sports Clubs and Societies at Cardiff University is open solely to members of the Students' Union. Membership to the Students' Union is automatic for all registered students studying at Cardiff University. However, we do welcome non Cardiff Students who are able to demonstrate that they may bring skills, experience and knowledge to the groups they wish to join.

Societies and Sports Clubs have a limited capacity for non-students and they are able to decline your membership application and as a member and you may not be eligible to take part in all activities of groups. You should contact your chosen club or society in advance of this application to check you eligibility to join and take part. This application will include your Associate Membership to Cardiff University Students' Union.

What are the "Athletic Union" and "Guild of Societies"?

These are the governing groups for our student activities groups at the Students' Union. All students and non-students alike must join these to be eligible to join any of the sports clubs or societies affiliated to them.

How much does it cost?

The Students' Union provides access to funding and resources for sports clubs and societies, with a specific aim to enhance the student experience of our students. We do recognise that non-students can bring skills, knowledge and expertise to a group that are beneficial to all students, however, we will ensure that our Societies and Sports Clubs are student led and run for the benefit of their members and that our resources are utilised as effectively as possible in supporting these individuals.

What happens next?

All applications are reviewed by the Students' Union and all applicants will be informed of the success of their application via email to the address given overleaf.

Please submit your form to the Athletic Union or Guild of Societies.

Once confirmation is received, you are then entitled to join your chosen sports clubs or societies.
