Accessing Functional Mail Accounts

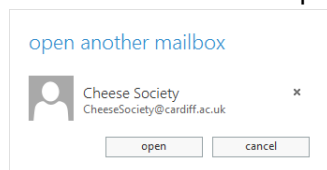

1. Log on to your university email account.
2. Click on your name and select Open another mailbox...

3. Start typing your club/society name. If you have accessed this before it will appear in the drop down, if you haven't you will need to click on Search Contacts and Directory.

4. Select the account and click Open. This will open a new window, so if you have a pop up blocker check that it allows this pop up.

5. The first time you access the account you will be asked to set the language and time zone.
